ANNOUNCEMENT.

We are authorized to announce
WILLIAM R. HOWELL, of Christian county, as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the State Senate from the District composed of Christian and Hopkins counties. Subject to the August primary.

A slight earthquake shock was felt in Evansville about 3 o'clock Monday, by persons in high buildings.

So far 110 spies and suspicious characters have been arrested under orders of the Department of Justice.
Others are being closely watched.

In the first vote she cast, Congresswoman Rankin got on the wrong side and voted against war. Jeannette would probably not be an old maid now if she had not learned to say "no."

The British started a big push around Arras Monday and drove the Germans out of their trenches on a wide front, pushing them back two or three miles and capturing more than 6,000 prisoners.

Lexington has been officially chosen as mobilization point by the war department for the Kentucky troops.
Two places are under consideration there, one being the old Blue park where guardsmen have encamped in former years.

The American legation at Berne has been officially notified from Vienna that the American embassy staff there, comprising nineteen secretaries and clerks, four women, wives of attaches and one child, may be expected to arrive in Switzerland Sunday, together with the consular staffs at Vienna, Budapest, Carlsbad, Trieste, Prague and Fiume.

Congress has passed a bill abolishing the grade of brigadier general, substituting a senior and junior grade of major general instead. We can do without generals, but our colonels must be protected by a sacred circle or Kentucky will secede or do something that is all the same in Dutch—refuse to whip Germany.

The prosecutions of alleged violators of the election laws in Cincinnati, Evansville and other places in Ohio and Indiana are practically annulled by decisions of the United States supreme court Monday. The decisions seem to controvert very clearly the contention that frauds committed at an election in which members of congress are to be voted for are frauds against the government and are subject to federal prosecution.
The supreme court holds that such frauds are matters for state prosecution and adds: "Congress has shown no disposition to control election of its own members." The defendants in the Evansville prosecution have relied on the Rhode Island case and the supreme court appears to have upheld their contentions. Not only does it seem to stop prosecutions, but it seems to hold invalid many sentences already imposed, notably those at Terre Haute, Ind., including the mayor and circuit judge, held guilty of conspiracy to defraud the government by interfering with the rights of candidates for congress and the senate. The United States circuit court of appeals sustained the indictment and the verdict.

Truth and Evasion.

The cruelest lies are often told in silence. A man may have sat in a room for hours and not opened his teeth and yet come out of that room a disloyal friend or a vile calumniator.
And how many loves have perished because, from pride, or spite, or diffidence, or that unmanly shame which withholds a man from daring to betray emotion, a lover, at the critical point of relaxation but hung his head or held his tongue? And again, a lie may be told by a truth, or a truth conveyed through a lie. Truth to facts is not always truth to sentiment; and part of the truth, as often happens in answer to a question, may be the foulest calumny. A fact may be an exception; but the feeling is the law, and it is that you must neither garble, nor belittle to tell the truth, rightly understood, is not to state the true facts, but convey a true impression; truth in spirit, not truth to letter, is the true veracity.—Robert Louis Stevenson.

Original St. Sophia.

One of the most interesting of Salonik's famous 22 churches is St. Sophia. Like its greater homonym of Constantinople, the National Geographic Magazine observes, it is a domed basilica, and it was long considered to be a provincial copy of that great original. As a matter of fact, the Saloniki church is the original, having been built a hundred years or more the earlier, at the end of the fourth or the beginning of the fifth century. The church has suffered disastrously by fire, earthquake and restoration, but the original lines of the structure remain, as well as the pillars and beautiful capitals of wind-blown acanthus, and two fine fragments of mosaic. The principal mosaic, an Ascension, with decorative green trees between the standing figures, lines the great dome. It is supposed to date from 645, though the figure of Christ in the center is older still.

A NERVOUS WRECK

From Three Years' Suffering. Says
Cardui Made Her Well.

Texas City, Tex.—In an interesting statement, Mrs. G. H. Schill, of this town, says: "For three years I suffered untold agony with my head. I was unable to do any of my work."

I just wanted to sleep all the time, for that was the only ease I could get, when I was asleep. I became a nervous wreck just from the awful suffering with my head.

I was so nervous that the least noise would make me jump out of my bed. I had no energy, and was unable to do anything. My son, a young boy, had to do all my household duties.

I was not able to do anything until I took Cardui. I took three bottles in all, and it surely cured me of those awful headaches. That has been three years ago, and I know the cure is permanent, for I have never had any headache since taking Cardui.

Nothing relieved me until I took Cardui.
It did wonders for me."

Try Cardui for your troubles—made from medicinal ingredients recommended in medical books as being of benefit in female troubles, and 40 years of use has

CONTRARY SORT OF WORLD

Most Powerful Stories of Love and Domestic Bliss, Written by the Unmarried.

The more popular books for children have been written by the childless, and some of the most powerful stories of love and domestic bliss or misery have been written by unmarried women and men.

And then, as you probably know, almost everyone thinks he knows more about other branches of business than the one in which he is engaged.

The average man can recall the time when he thought the other fellow's job was much easier than his, and was haunted more or less with the notion that if he had taken up almost anything but what he had he would have made a great success of it.

It is said there has never, or hardly ever, been a great comedian who didn't believe, or think he believed, that his forte was tragedy; and as if not to be outdone, the successful tragedian never ceases to curse the luck that prevented him from being a comedian.

You may not think this is a contrary sort of world, but there are a lot of people who do.

THEIR PLACE OF KEEPING.

"Since this new submarine war started I am worried about the new suits I ordered from my London tailor."

"Why are you worried?"
"I am afraid instead of coming to my closet they will go to Davy Jones' locker."

PERHAPS.

"This magazine writer says Palm Beach is a blaze of color."

"Well! Well! Maybe that's because nobody can have a good time there unless he shows the waiters and bellhops the color of his money."

SIGNS.

"Is life about this seaside resort fast?"

"I should say so. Why, even the fogs get dissipated."

WAIVED CONVENTIONALITIES.

Lily—Did Jack propose to you on his knees?

Madge—No, on his nerve, I should say.—Town Topics.
